

Ministry Information Sheet for John M. O'Malley

John O'Malley was born in 1964 in Huntington, New York, to John and Barbara O'Malley.

John surrendered to missions in 1975 at a missions conference. God began to direct his path to college. He attended college in Jacksonville, FL; Fort Worth, TX; and Atlanta, GA.

John married Kimberly Trenton in 1986, whom he met at Trinity Baptist College.

They served as Church Planters in Grenada, West Indies. The Lord allowed them to plant two churches that exist today. Each of those churches planted other churches since their departure.

God brought them to the US in 1988, the same year as the birth of their son, John. Since their return, John has pastored in Alabama for five years.

In 1993, after leaving Alabama, John accepted the Lord's call to return to mission work. He serves with World Wide New Testament Baptist Missions, located in Kings Mountain, North Carolina.

He is the President of World Wide New Testament Baptist Missions and a faith missionary. His ministry involves visiting mission fields to evangelize the lost, encourage missionaries, and seek places of service for new missionaries. He also speaks to churches to help them attain their mission goals and directs the mission office in serving churches efficiently.

John is the author of "Bread from Bethlehem," "Overcoming Your Devotional Obstacles," and "Reflections on Psalm 100."
